Polished and detailed red fruit bouquet, with clove and Provencal herbs on display; medium-bodied and almost silky in texture, with fine-grained tannins and an even-fruited finish. To 2020.

Bright ruby-red. Intense, highly perfumed aromas of red fruit preserves, spicecake, herbs and cola. Smooth and fleshy, with densely packed yet vibrant flavors of raspberry and bitter cherry. Spicy and quite elegant, with fine-grained, silky tannins and impressive finishing cling. This doesn't want to let go.

The 2009 Blewitt Springs Single Region Grenache has a medium garnet-purple color. Youthfully mute, it reveals delicate warm raspberry, strawberry and mulberry aromas with spice box plus some eucalypt and thyme. Very crisp, rich and full, it offers medium-firm, velvety tannins and a long and spicy finish.

Dark and spicy, this red is soft in texture, brimming with blackberry, smoke and wet slate flavors that linger on the open finish. Drink now through 2019.

Lovely strawberry fruit with hints of flowers on the nose and palate. Medium bodied, with fine tannins and a delicious finish. Balanced and delicious. Drink now and over the next eight years. Screw cap.
