

d'Arenberg

VINTAGE FORTIFIED

Shiraz 2008

McLaren Vale, Shiraz (100%)

Ross Noble

The Courier

The d'Arenberg Vintage Fort Shiraz 2008 is from the same old dry-grown vines as the original. It is a luscious, spicy, but not over-the-top, sweet intro to a meal, with liqueured brandy spirit kicking in amid dark chocolate on the palate.

91 Points

James Halliday

James Halliday The Australian Wine Companion

Deep inky purple; stacked to the rafters with black fruits, licorice, spice and dark chocolate; at first blush the baume seems a little too high (fruit sweet), but the spirit on the finish makes you wish there was more fruit. A decade may resolve it.