Copper-tinted yellow. Pungent, highly aromatic bouquet evokes poached pear, beeswax, toffee and white flowers, along with subtle spiciness and a touch of candied peach. Sappy, sweet and palate-coating, with good energy to its nectar-like orchard and pit fruit flavors. The spicy note comes back on the finish, which leaves candied pit fruit notes behind. Shows good energy for a sweet wine.

Sweet and lush, with honeyed range of pear, vanilla and cream flavours, finishing smooth and seductive. Drink now through 2018.

Bright yellow-gold, far lighter than the Noble Mud Pie Viognier Roussanne. The wine is very rich and very sweet, capable of handling any dessert you come up with, but isn't particularly complex. Age in bottle will increase the complexity, but there is a question of losing on the swings what you gained on the roundabout.
