Which pack did I sign up for?

You can view your current subscription by logging into your online account. Under Member Details it will display all current and historical information.

Is there a sign-up fee?

No, there is no additional sign-up fee. You will only be charged for the packs you are currently subscribed to plus any additional purchases you make.

Can I change packs or select multiple packs?

Absolutely! Log into your online account with your username and password and navigate to the Member Details area, where you can view your current subscriptions, purchase history and make changes to your preferences.

Can I choose what wines are included in my pack?

The pack descriptions give an indication of what you are going to receive. Mixed packs are hand selected by our winemakers prior to each shipment, so you are unable to select specific wines. However, you are able to change your pack choice by logging into the Member Details area on our website. You can also add more wine to your order and take advantage of your 15% Ceno Club discount.

What do I do if I'm away when a shipment is due?

Can I change the address my wine is shipped to?

Yes, you can update your delivery address by logging into your online account and navigating to the Member Details section.

When will my credit card be charged?

Can I cancel my subscription?

Yes, you can cancel your subscription any time before your credit card is processed for the next shipment. To maintain your Ceno Club membership and benefits, simply continue to spend $300 per annum on your favourite d'Arenberg wines.

How do I know when my next delivery is due?

At the start of the delivery month you will receive a notification email containing information for the scheduled delivery, including the wines to be delivered, credit card processing date, and shipping information. You can make changes to your subscription right up until the date for credit card processing.

What happens if I do not respond to the shipment notification email?

If you do not respond we will assume everything is ok for us to proceed with the shipment.
